Sulzer Chemtech Completes Acquisition of Mixpac, Werfo, and Mold

The acquisition of Mixpac, Werfo, and Mold by Sulzer Chemtech as announced on August 22, 2006, has been completed on December 29, 2006.

Based on a new assessment of the legal situation, Sulzer concluded that a review of the acquisition by antitrust authorities is not needed.

Sulzer was founded in 1834 in Winterthur, Switzerland, and today is active in machinery and equipment manufacturing and surface engineering in over 120 locations worldwide. The core divisions are global leaders in their markets, which include the oil and gas, chemical process, power generation, pulp and paper, automotive, and aerospace industries.
