Sulzer recognized again as a Top Employer

In 2026, Sulzer added Canada and Mexico to its list of Top Employer-certified countries, expanding its network to 11 countries and earning regional Top Employer status in North America for the first time. The company was also recertified in Brazil, China, Ireland, Finland, Germany, Switzerland, South Africa, the UK, and the USA, retaining its position as a regional Top Employer in Europe.

The Top Employers Institute uses surveys and independent audits to objectively measure companies against the highest international standards across multiple HR categories. Designed to recognize outstanding employer standards, the Top Employers Institute audits and certifies companies based on the results of its HR Best Practices Survey which covers domains including people strategy, work environment, talent acquisition, learning, and more.

2026 marks Sulzer's fifth consecutive year in this certification program. Each year, Sulzer has expanded its network of Top Employer countries, underscoring its ongoing commitment to excellence in people practices.

Sustained commitment to best-in-class people practices

Sulzer's Executive Chairwoman, Suzanne Thoma, said, "We're proud to be recognized once again as a Top Employer. This achievement shows how integral our people strategy is to Sulzer's growth and excellence roadmap. We remain committed to aligning our people practices with strategic business priorities to build a resilient, high-performing organization prepared to thrive in a dynamic business landscape."

Top Employers Institute's CEO, Adrian Seligman, shared, "Being recognized as a Regional Top Employer for 2026 is a significant achievement that reflects the strength and consistency of Sulzer's people strategy across multiple countries. We are proud to celebrate this continued commitment to HR excellence."
